Dear Sgt. Howard,

I just got off the phone with Stephanie, a dispatcher for the Denton County Sheriff's Office. I received information that the fugitive Jason Van Dyke is presently at his residence. I immediately contacted the sheriff's office and informed them that Van Dyke is at his residence at 108 Durango RIGHT AT THIS VERY MOMENT!!!

I would like to know why you are refusing to effect an IMMEDIATE arrest and take Van Dyke into custody. If true, this is complete BS and I seriously doubt that this is something that you would do if the subject was a member of the minority community. In case you were not aware, Van Dyke has a great deal of weapons in his house. Attached is a recent photograph from inside of it.

I also was not aware that this was something optional. In case you forget, the District Attorney and Judge Coby Waddill want this guy locked up ASAP. I have attached copies of the relevant court documents for your reference, and I have copied both Judge Waddill and Paul Johnson, the Denton County District Attorney. Both myself and Denton City Councilwoman Deb Armintor are victims of Van Dyke's murder threats, and the sooner he is off the street, the better she and I will feel. I would really hate for this to be a case of White Privilege or some other type of illegal, preferential treatment.

I hope that this is just a terrible misunderstanding. But I have a hunch that something very fishy is going on – and I really really hate fish, Mr. Howard.

Just wondering if anyone has finally decided to go out and arrest the criminal fugitive from justice Jason Lee Van Dyke, who has in his home a HUGE stockpile of guns? I tried calling this morning, but no one picked up.
